Dear Cass Junior High School Families,

Welcome to the 2020-21 school year. We hope you and your families have enjoyed many memorable moments this summer. The Staff is looking forward to welcoming back students.

We wanted to take a moment to remind you of important dates and some new procedures.Outlined below are the next couple of weeks to keep everyone on track with our hybrid schedule.

- August 20: Please watch your email for orientation information
- August 24: Teacher Institute
- August 25: 5th Grade Orientation Day*
  *You will receive an appointment time under separate cover. Only one child and one parent should attend please.
- August 26, 27, 28: Teacher Institute & Remote Planning Days*
  *Families new to the district will be invited for an appointment with our school counselor to review information and answer questions.
  *All families will receive information from teachers introducing themselves and sharing curricular information. This video will serve as our ‘Virtual Curriculum Night.’
- August 31: First Day (5-8) at School for students in the Monday/Wednesday group
- September 1: First Day (5-8) at School for students in the Tuesday/Thursday group
- September 4: Remote Learning Day
- September 7: Labor Day – No School

In past years, you have received certain documents at in-person Orientation. We are sending digital links to these items this year. You will receive this information on August 20. Many things have changed, so please take the time to read through this important information.

Thank you for your patience and understanding as we navigate through the start of the 2020-21 school year. Ensuring safety of our students and staff, providing a rigorous instructional program and creating positive relationships with our students are our most important goals. We look forward to seeing all of the students and we are excited to start what will be a great school year.

Fondly,

Mrs. Christine Marcinkewicz
